"Where Broadway meets Namaste!"

Like Nothing You've Seen Before ...

Greetings!

Karma Kabaret is an entertainment written with the intention of putting goodness into the world: by making people laugh — a lot — and think a lot and discover a lot and feel a lot and laugh — a lot!

The vehicle for this is a musical parody romp through the ins, outs, downs and ups of my "spiritual journey" — which I define right at the start as: "my ongoing adventure to understand what it means to be alive: in this body, in this lifetime, on this planet, in this universe, in this Creation of Everything."

Karma Kabaret is ideal as an fundraising entertainment for organizations putting goodness into this world — because we're coming from the same place of heart.

My big wish for Karma Kabaret is that something I say or sing rings a little bell inside those in the audience ... Maybe one thing can help them on their life journey however they define it for themselves.

As you'll see from the audience reactions, they love it. It moves them. It makes them think. It makes them laugh. The tunes are familiar, the subjects run the gamut from Yoga to quantum physics to ETs to Buddhist philosophy to the power of the conscious mind to the trials of Veganism!

And the style? Well, it's kind of like Robin Williams meets Streisand meets TED Talks meets Einstein meets Buddha meets Broadway meets Zavidow!

Karma Kabaret is the creative celebration of a life of exploring through 39+ years as a corporate communicator, stage and cabaret performer, songwriter, recording artist, social worker, stand-up experimenter, Yoga Teacher, traveler and curious person trying to figure out this life! A drop of goodness into the Great Bucket of Life!
